Music By Entertainers:

Joyce Vetter

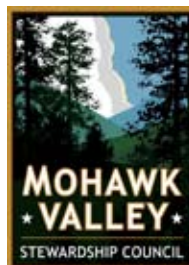

Joyce covers diverse musical terrain with her unique style, based on country and root-blues techniques but also jazz, classical and rock idioms. Raised in the multicultural region of northern Nevada, listening to colorful Basque folk songs played with accordion, she overheard root blues on high desert rickety back porches and cowboys lamenting outside gambling houses and nearby honky tonks.

Bourgeois Gypsies

From stripped down, gritty hillbilly sounds to slinky swamp ballads, the Bourgeois Gypsies hold true to the old Gypsy proverb "Stay where there are songs". Shades of country, blues, and soul with a twist of Bakersfield can be heard throughout, but the result is a sound uniquely their own. Think back porch music full of sing-along choruses and edgy riffs..

The top 25 of the FAR Charts.
